RULES

FOR THE

GOVERNMENT OF PRISONERS.

To the Prisoner:

That you may appreciate fully the power conferred upon the prison authorities by the laws of the state in maintaining order and discipline in the prison, your attention is directed to the following section of the revised statutes, and your assistance is invoked in keeping the conditions such that harsh measures may become unnecessary and unknown:

Section 4922. All necessary means shall be used, under the direction of the warden, to maintain order in the prison, enforce obedience, suppress insurrections and effectually prevent escapes, even at the hazard of life; for which purpose he may at all times command the aid of the officers of the institution and of the citizens outside of the precincts of the prison; and any citizen refusing to obey such command shall be held liable to such fines, penalties and forfeitures as apply to persons refusing to obey a sheriff or other officer calling upon the aid of the county to assist in serving a process or for quelling insurrection.

GENERAL RULES.

1. Observe strictly these rules and obey the orders of officers and directions of foremen without reply or argument. When orders of officers and others conflict, obey the officer.

2. Be quiet everywhere and at all times.

3. You are not to talk or communicate in any manner with any other prisoner while marching or standing in line, while at meals (except by such signs as make your wants known to the waiter), while in the chapel or at work in the shop except when given permission by an officer or guard. You are not to talk to any free person unless by permission and in the presence of an officer. You are not to talk to any officer on subjects not concerning your duty or conduct as a prisoner. Insolence, profanity or obscenity will not be tolerated.

4. You may talk to your cell mate, if you have one, but in LOW TONES only. Do not talk or call to men in other cells. Do not whistle, sing or make any unnecessary noise.

5. Keep your person, clothes, bedding, cell and library books clean. You must not draw, paint or hang pictures on the walls of your cell, nor in any way mark or deface library books, buildings, walls, furniture or fittings.

6. You are not to alter or deface your clothing in any way, and must not cut your shoes. If your clothing or shoes do not fit, or need repair, report at once to your officer, who will take the necessary steps to remedy the matter.

7. You must wear your outer shirt, and are not allowed to work in your undershirt unless by special permission of the Warden or Deputy Warden, while tending boilers, furnaces, etc.

8. When leaving or entering your cell close the door without slamming. Stand at the cell door whenever required for count. Hold your door firmly closed till the switch bar is thrown, or when the officer locks the door with the key.

9. You must sleep with your feet towards the cell door. Unless you have permission and on account of sickness, do not go to bed in the day time, except during the afternoon of Sundays and holidays. Do not go to bed with your clothing on. Keep your shoes off the bed.

10. On returning to the cell house go into your own cell. If found in the wrong cell you will be severely punished. Stopping on the range to look into another prisoner's cell or passing any article into a cell or from one cell to another will be severely punished. Using a mirror to watch officers on the range will be severely punished.

11. You must not have money, jewelry or any valuables in your possession; nor any stamps; nor stationery, except that furnished you on writing day. Pen and ink will be furnished you on writing day, and letter paper, when not used for a letter, must be returned.

12. You must not, at any time, have any tools or weapons in your cell nor concealed in your clothing, or on your person. Tinkering in your cell is expressly forbidden.

13. You must not at any time have a knife on your person or in your cell unless you have written permission from the Warden or Deputy. Any knife found in your clothing or concealed upon your person or in your cell will be held as evidence of your intention to injure some one and you will be dealt with accordingly.

14. You are not to carry a lead pencil or blank paper upon your person or into your cell without written permission of the Warden or Deputy Warden. If it is necessary for you to use a pencil at your work it must be left in the shop either at your place or in the custody of your shop officer. Materials from the shop must not be taken into your cell.

15. Whenever you have any necessary communication to make, or a request to present to the Board of Control, Warden or Deputy Warden, inform your officer, who will make out for you a written request for audience or letter, or will state your business in writing and forward it through proper channels to the person you wish to address. On matters of minor importance notify your officer of your desire to speak to the Deputy when he next visits the shop, stating why you wish to speak to him. Do not step out of line to address the Warden or Deputy Warden.

16. When marching in line keep your head erect and your face turned towards the front. You must not leave the line or change places in the line without permission of the officer in charge. On marching into the shop keep your place in the line till the officer commands the line to break.

17. At the first whistle signal in the morning you must arise, wash, dress, clean your cuspidor, make up your bed and prepare to march out with the cell bucket. If sick, notify the officer who unlocks the range, or your shop keeper as soon as you reach the shop. Do not remain in your cell without permission.

18. At the 9 P. M. signal go to bed at once, placing your shoes at the cell door, and the balance of your clothing where it can plainly be seen.

19. Whenever you leave your cell for work, school or chapel, and whenever you leave the shop, see that your clothing is in order and shirt properly fastened at the neck band. No ribbons, badges or decorations, except the badge of the prison Christian Endeavor society, will be allowed on your clothing. Put your cap on properly and keep your hands out of your pockets. Avoid all insolence or rowdyism in walk, manner or gestures.

20. You will be promptly reported and severely punished if you unnecessarily, and with intention of annoying, jostle or brush against another prisoner, or in any way provoke another prisoner to anger. Making faces or insulting gestures will not be tolerated.

Any trick, by which another prisoner is led into violation of rules and loss of time, will lead its author into severe punishment and reduction to the Third Grade.

21. In speaking to an officer stand at two paces' distance and speak distinctly; it is not necessary to breathe into an officer's face to make him hear you. Do not pass closely in front of an officer, or between two officers who are conversing, and do not interrupt unless you are a messenger charged by another officer with very urgent and important business.

22. You must not chew tobacco while marching in line or while in the dining room. You must not spit upon cell house or corridor floors or upon dining room floor. Cuspidors will be provided and must be used. When you go to sick call be sure that your mouth has been rinsed out and that no tobacco stains are on lips or tongue.

23. You must not use or have tobacco while in the hospital or in sick cell. If in the First Grade you may smoke IN YOUR CELL at noon, after evening count, and until bedtime—9 P. M.—but in no other place in the prison and AT NO OTHER TIME, except that night engineers and firemen may smoke at work.

24. You are permitted to have in your cell the following regulation articles of furniture: One Bible, 1 cup, 1 mirror, 1 cuspidor, 1 spoon, 1 face towel, 1 dish towel, 1 piece hard soap, 1 comb, 1 hair brush, blankets, sheets, pillow cases, night shirt, mattress, bedstead, camp stool, 1 table, 1 water jar with cover, 1 electric light, 1 small library shelf, 1 library catalogue and book of rules and such school and library books as your conduct and grade privileges permit.

25. You are not to have any tobacco in your possession if in the Second or Third Grade, and a prisoner who gives tobacco to a Second or Third Grade man will be severely punished and reduced to either grade.

26. In chapel sit erect with arms folded when not holding the song book or lesson leaf. Keep your face toward the front, and pay respectful attention. Do not chew tobacco in chapel. Do not spit on the floor. Do not read during services.

27. To attract your officer's attention raise your hand. Do not hiss at him, or call to him, or make any noise to attract his attention, for which you should not have long to wait.

28. You are not to warn any officer of the approach or movements of the Warden or Deputy Warden, nor are you to warn any other prisoner of the presence or movements of an officer or guard. Any interference of this nature with the business of the officers of the institution will certainly result in your punishment and loss of good time.

29. Do not stare at officers or visitors. Impudent staring will be considered and reported as insolence. Do not gaze around the shop but pay attention strictly to your work.

30. You must approach an officer or guard in a respectful manner, taking off your cap, or touching the cap if out of doors, before speaking to him. Use the officer's last name always with the title "Mr." and with no other title. In addressing the officer, if you do not know his name, say "Sir" and proceed with your communication.

31. You are not to answer or respond if addressed by your first, or given name, as the undue familiarity between officers and prisoners, which such a custom breeds, will not be tolerated. Any attempt at familiarity on your part will be punished, so you are to avoid all familiarity on the part of the officer, guard or foreman. You must not place your hand upon an officer or foreman or touch their clothing, or in any way come into close personal contact with them.

32. You are not to receive anything whatsoever from any free person, or person not connected with the institution in an official capacity. You are to make no present whatsoever to any officer or employee of the institution, not to buy anything from or for any officer, nor to ask any officer to buy anything from or for you. You are not to ask any officer or employee to mail or write any letter for you without special permission from the Warden or Deputy Warden. Your mail must not be addressed to you in care of any foreman, officer or guard, but in care of the Warden of the institution. You are not to make or repair anything for any officer, guard or employee unless written permission is obtained from the Deputy Warden.

33. DELIVERING ARTICLES TO CONVICT. (Section 4493, Revised Statutes—State of Wisconsin.) Any officer or other person who shall deliver or procure to be delivered or shall have in his possession with intent to deliver to any convict confined in the state prison, or shall deposit or conceal in or about said prison or the dependencies thereof, or in any carriage or other vehicle going into the premises belonging to said prison any article or thing whatever, with intent that any convict confined in said prison should obtain or receive the same, or who shall receive from any convict any article or thing whatever with intent to convey the same out of said prison, contrary to the rules or regulations of said prison and without the knowledge or permission of the Warden thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment in said state prison not more than two years or by fine not exceeding five hundred dollars.

34. You are required to attend chapel services on Sundays, except on the last Sunday of the month, and in no case to absent yourself therefrom without written consent or order of the Warden, Deputy Warden or Physician.

The services are non-sectarian in character, and your religious preferences, if you have any, will not be in any way opposed. Prison life is swiftly destructive of physical and mental being if bad habits and immoral tendencies are not dispelled by the cultivation of sound morals and the uplifting of the soul from gloomy brooding and evil thoughts, and such are the objects sought in these services, which every prisoner should attend and willingly encourage for his own preservation and strengthening, as well as for the good done others by his example.

GRADING RULES.

35. On entering the prison the prisoner shall be placed in the First Grade. As long as his conduct is good and he complies fully and cheerfully with the rules he shall be entitled to the following privileges:

1. One ration of tobacco each week.
2. Electric light in his cell.
3. Visits from friends once in four weeks.
4. Permission to write a letter on the 1st and 3rd Sundays of the month.
5. Permission to receive weekly newspapers and periodicals approved by the Warden.
6. Permission to draw books from the library.
7. Permission to receive from friends on Holidays one express package of not more than 6 pounds, which may contain articles enumerated under mail and express rules.
8. Other Holiday privileges whenever the Warden shall deem them safe or advisable.

36. For willful violation of the rules, or for laziness, filthiness, or disorderly conduct, in addition to punishment by solitary confinement on bread and water, with loss of good time, or by recording a black-mark with loss of good time, the Warden may, in his discretion, reduce the offender to the Second or Third Grade.

37. In the Second Grade the prisoner shall receive the following privileges only:

1. Permission to write on the 2nd Sunday of the month.
2. Electric light in cell.
3. Permission to draw books from the library.

He shall remain in the Second Grade until the Warden deems him worthy of promotion to the First Grade and complete restoration to the First Grade privileges.

38. In the Third Grade the prisoner shall receive none of the privileges heretofore mentioned, except when absolutely necessary as vital matters and then only by special direction of the Warden.

39. In the Third Grade the prisoner shall be denied all communication with outside friends and relatives except in cases of sickness and then only by special direction of the Warden.

MAIL AND EXPRESS RULES.

40. All letters and papers shall be examined at the office under the direction of the Warden before being mailed or delivered.

41. No mail will be taken from the Post Office for any prisoner unless the prisoner shall, over his own signature, give the Warden authority for its withdrawal from the Post Office and its opening and inspection by the prison authorities, and its non-delivery when subversive of the safety or discipline of the prison, or the laws of the state of Wisconsin.

42. On entering the prison the following form shall be presented to the prisoner for signature:

"The undersigned, a prisoner in the Wisconsin State Prison, hereby directs the Warden of the Wisconsin State Prison to receive for the undersigned all mail addressed to him, to open and inspect such mail, and to deliver to him all mail which does not contain criminal news or matter prejudicial to the safety and discipline of the prison."

43. Letters of prisoners, other than those addressed to the Governor or members of the State Board of Control, which contain accusations, charges or complaints against the prison authorities, will not be mailed.

44. Letters must be short and refer to family or personal matters only, or to proper matters of business. No reference must be made to criminals nor to criminal matters generally. No reference must be made to prison officers by name, nor to anything that happens in or about the prison. No obscene or vulgar language will be permitted; such language would of itself render the prisoner liable to prosecution under the laws of the United States if the letter containing it were mailed. Letters containing threats of any kind also lay the writer liable to prosecution under State laws.

45. You will be permitted to write sealed letters to the State Board of Control at Madison, to whom any proper or truthful complaint may be made without fear of punishment or disclosure of your name.

46. Written permission must be obtained from the Warden or Deputy in case it becomes necessary to write special letters, and in making application for special permits the prisoner must state his reason for such request.

47. The writing days for the First Grade are on the first and third Sundays of the month. The Second Grade will write on the second Sunday of the month. Prisoners are furnished with stationery and postage by the state. Letters when written must be left unfolded and placed on the cross bar of the cell door for collection Sunday evening. Unused letter sheets must be returned. Do not write between the lines or across the written matter, nor in any way make your letter difficult of inspection or otherwise it will be destroyed.

48. Your friends may send you by mail the following articles only: Magazines, weekly newspapers, story papers, novels of the better grade, photographs of relatives, suspenders, comb, hair brush, small whisk brush, tooth brush, manicure scissors or nail trimmer, chewing gum, wooden tobacco pipe, handkerchiefs. Express packages will not be received or signed for except small packages of fruit or nuts, just before a holiday, not exceeding six pounds in weight, or extra citizen's clothing just before a prisoner's discharge. One-half pound of sugar may be packed with the fruit; but candy, cake, meats or canned goods of any description will not be admitted, nor will anything escape destruction that is suspected to contain, or could contain, morphine, opium, or similar drugs.

No daily paper, or papers dealing extensively in criminal, sporting house or gambling news, or sensational papers of low moral tone, will be admitted.

DINING ROOM RULES.

49. On entering the dining room take your seat promptly, sit erect and fold your arms, keeping your eyes to the front until the signal is given for you to commence eating. Keep your elbows off the table.

50. Strict silence must be observed, and you must learn to make your wants known by the use of the following signals:

If you wish water, place or hold your cup with the handle toward the aisle or toward the waiter. If you wish tea or coffee, reverse the position so that the handle of the cup is away from the aisle or the waiter. If you wish syrup (when the same is on the table) hold your slice of bread above your plate. If you want meat, hold up your fork about the height of your chin. If you wish soup, hold up your spoon. If you want vegetables, hold up your knife. If you want bread, hold up your right hand. After finishing your meal place knife, fork and spoon in parallel position across your plate from right to left, with the handles together.

51. Using vinegar in your drinking water or putting meat upon the table is strictly prohibited. You are permitted to eat at table until the signal is given for the line preceding yours to rise.

52. Wasting food in any form will not be tolerated. Do not ask for, or allow the waiter to place on your plate more food than you can eat. When through with your meal leave unbroken pieces of bread unmussed on the left side of your plate. Crusts and small pieces of bread must not be left upon your plate.

53. You may take food to your cell from the dinner table on Sundays and holidays only.

54. If you wish to speak to your officer about the food or service, or become sick and are obliged to leave the table, hold up your left hand.

MARCHING.

55. At every signal to fall in for marching, you must take your place in line promptly, forming in double column of files. Every alternate man as he arrives at his place in line will step up to the left of the man in front of him, touching elbows with him. Stand erect in line, hands by your side, eyes on the neck of the man in front of you and keep a distance from him of sixteen inches. At the command "Forward," transfer the weight of the body to the right leg and at the command, "March," step off promptly with the left foot, keeping in step with the man in front of you and promptly obeying the orders of your officer. Do not raise your hand in the ranks. March steadily and with military precision.

56. When the column of twos approaches any doorway or passage where it will be necessary to march in single file the officer will command "Right by file—march!" At the command "March" each man on the left of each set of two will step to the rear of the man on his right and continue to march.

57. When necessary to form a column of twos from a line marching in single file, the officer will command "Form twos—march!" At the command march the second man from the head of the column will step to the left of the man marching in front of him, and simultaneously each alternate man will perform the same movement, it being exactly the reverse of the movement Right by file.

58. When the officer shall desire to march the column to the right or left he shall command "Column right (or left)—march!" At the command march the leading man (or two men) shall turn to the right (or left) and the remainder of the men in the column shall march up to and turn on the same spot, preserving their distance and covering the men in front of them.

LABOR RULES.

59. On entering the shop or arriving at your place of labor you will prepare for and begin upon your work promptly.

60. You must respectfully listen to and carry out all instructions given you by your foreman. In talking with your foreman, you are required to confine your conversation strictly to your shop duties. Excepting your foreman and officer, you are strictly forbidden to speak or communicate with any one. You will make known your desire to speak to an officer by holding up your left hand.

61. You will not be allowed to leave your place of work except by permission of your officer. When out of work, or permitted to rest, you must stand or sit in your place with arms folded.

62. If you are sick or unable to work, report the fact to your officer and act as he may direct.

63. No private work will be allowed in the shops. All trading or bartering between prisoners or between officers and citizens and prisoners, is strictly prohibited.

64. When passed by your officer to the cell room, you will take the pass and report therewith to the cell house keeper at once.

65. You are warned that malicious injury or destruction of property, tools and machinery belonging to the State, or to any person, will render you liable to criminal prosecution under the laws of the State.

66. Notify your officer if you wish to speak to the Warden or Deputy when either visits your shop or place of employment, but you are not to seek such interview when either officer is accompanied by official or other visitors not members of the Board of Control.

DIMINUTION OF SENTENCE FOR GOOD CONDUCT.

67. Section 4928, Rl. S. . . . Every convict who is now or may be hereafter confined in the state prison and shall conduct himself in a peaceful and obedient manner and faithfully perform all the duties required of him, shall be entitled to a diminution of time from the term of his sentence not exceeding the amount specified in the following table, for the respective years of his sentence and pro rata for any part of a year where the sentence is more than a year:

Years of Sentence.	Good time granted	Total good time made.	Time to be served if full good time is made.
First year.....	One month.....	One month.....	Eleven months.
Second year.....	Two months.....	Three months.....	One year and 9 months.
Third year.....	Three months.....	Six months.....	Two years and 6 months.
Fourth year.....	Four months.....	Ten months.....	Three years and 2 months.
Fifth year.....	Five months.....	One year and 3 mos.	Three years and 9 months.
Sixth year.....	Six months.....	One year and 9 mos.	Four years and 3 months.
Seventh year.....	Six months.....	Two years and 3 mos.	Four years and 9 months.

To ascertain the good time which may be made on any sentence from one year to thirty years (inclusive) the following table may be consulted:

SENTENCE.		GOOD TIME.			TIME TO BE SERVED.
Years.	Months.	Years.	Months.	Days.	Years.	Months.	Days.

or, for any sentence over 5 years divide the sentence by two and add a year and three months and the answer is the amount of time the convict must serve if all good time is earned: 30 years divided by 2 equals 15 years; 15 years plus 1 yr. and 3 mos. equal 16 years and 3 months.

68. "When the sentence exceeds seven years, for every year after the seventh, if the conduct of the prisoner continues to correspond with the requirements of this section, he shall receive the same diminution as provided for the sixth and seventh years. In case any convict shall be guilty of the violation of any of the rules, laws and regulations of the prison, or shall refuse or neglect faithfully to perform all the duties required of him and has become entitled to any diminution of his sentence, he shall forfeit from his good time earned, for the first offense, five days; for the second offense, ten days; and for the third and each subsequent offense, twenty days; and in addition thereto, the Warden may, with the consent of the Board of Control, cancel and deprive him of all or any part of the good time theretofore earned."

69. "Whenever any convict has been or shall be committed under several convictions with separate sentences, they shall be construed as one continuous sentence, for the purpose of computing the good time made or forfeited under this act."

EARNINGS.

70. Earnings available only to a prisoner upon his discharge from prison are computed at the rate of 3 cents per day for the first year, and 1 cent per day for the remainder of the time of his sentence:

1st year, 11 months of 26 days each—
286 days at 3 cents per day .....	$3 58
2nd year, 10 months of 26 days each—
260 days at 1 cent per day .....	2 60
3rd year, 9 months of 26 days each—
234 days at 1 cent per day .....	2 34
4th year, 8 months of 26 days each—
208 days at 1 cent per day .....	2 03
5th year, 7 months of 26 days each—
182 days at 1 cent per day .....	1 82
6th year, 6 months of 26 days each—
156 days at 1 cent per day .....	1 56
Every year thereafter .....	1 56

In addition to his discharge clothing and his transportation to the place of conviction or an equal distance in any other direction:

A one-year man can earn and have at his discharge .....	$3 58
A two-year man can earn and have at his discharge .....	11 18
A three-year man can earn and have at his discharge .....	13 51
A four-year man can earn and have at his discharge .....	15 60
A five-year man can earn and have at his discharge .....	17 42
A six-year man can earn and have at his discharge .....	18 98

71. Deductions from earnings for good time lost by misconduct are as follows:

First 30 days lost, at 5 cents per day .....	$1 50
Next 60 days lost, at 3 cents per day .....	1 80
Next 90 days lost, at 2 cents per day .....	1 80
Next 120 days lost, at 1½ cents per day ..	1 80
Next 150 days lost, at 1¼ cents per day .....	1 87
Next 180 days lost, at 1 cent per day .....	1 80

The earnings of life prisoners are credited to them at the end of each year's service. They are paid at the same rate as short-term men.

LAWS, RULES AND REGULATIONS GOVERNING APPLICATIONS FOR PARDON.Chapter 199, Revised Statutes.

72. Section 4855. All applications for pardon, on behalf of any person or persons convicted in any court in this state, of any crime punishable under the laws thereof, by imprisonment in the state prison or state reformatory, and sentenced to such imprisonment, shall be made and conducted in the manner hereinafter prescribed.

Section 4856. Notice of the application for such pardon shall be given to the judge who presided at the trial, and to the district attorney of the county, who prosecuted the indictment or information against such person or persons so convicted and sentenced, at least three weeks before such application shall be filed with the governor; copies of such notice, acknowledged by such judge and district attorney, or certified under oath of a credible witness to be true copies thereof, shall accompany every such application to the governor; and a notice of such application, setting forth the name of the person on whose behalf it is made, the crime of which he shall have been convicted, the time of such conviction, and the term of sentence, shall also be published, at least once each week, for two successive weeks, in some newspaper of general circulation in the county where the offense for which pardon is sought was committed; or if there be no newspaper published therein, then such notice shall be posted in a conspicuous place on the door of the court house of such county for three weeks prior to such application, and shall also be published once each week for two consecutive weeks in some newspaper published in a county adjoining; a copy of which notices, duly authenticated by some credible witness under oath, shall also accompany such application.

Section 4857. Each application for pardon shall also be accompanied by the following papers:

1. A certified copy of the whole record, including docket entries, minutes of court, copy of indictment, pleas, and all other papers on file in court relating to the case.

2. A full statement of the reasons upon which the application is based, setting forth all the facts, such statement to be verified by affidavit, and also a letter from the district attorney, indicating his views upon the subject of the application and stating briefly any circumstances in aggravation or extenuation which he may have in his possession. All applications for the pardon of any person who shall have been convicted of the crime of murder, shall in addition to the requirements hereinbefore indicated, be accompanied by the recommendation of the judge who presided at the trial in which said conviction was had, or of the judge in office when the application is made in the circuit where the trial was had.

3. The warden or keeper of the prison where such applicant shall have been confined, shall certify to the governor whether the applicant has, during his confinement, conducted himself in a peaceful and obedient manner; but this chapter shall not be so construed as to render it obligatory upon the executive to pardon any convict, although the application for such pardon shall be made in accordance with the provisions hereof.

Section 4858. Every judge presiding at the trial of any person indicted or informed against for an offense, conviction of which would, under the statutes of this state, be followed by imprisonment in the state prison for not less than one year, shall keep, or cause to be kept, full minutes of all testimony given upon such trial, and at the close of the trial, such minutes shall be delivered to and shall be filed by the clerk of the court, in which such trial is had; and upon any application for pardon of the person convicted, upon such trial, said minutes of testimony, or a certified copy thereof, shall accompany the application.

Section 4859. In all cases in which the governor is authorized to grant pardons, he may grant a pardon upon such conditions and restrictions, and under such limitations, as he may think proper, and he may issue his warrant to all proper officers to carry into effect such conditional pardons, which warrants shall be obeyed and executed instead of the sentence, if any, which was originally awarded.

Section 4860. Whenever any convict is pardoned by the governor, or his punishment commuted, or when he shall be remanded to imprisonment for the violation of any of the conditions of his pardon, the officer to whom the warrant for that purpose is issued, after executing the same, shall make return thereof, under his hand, with his doings thereon, to the governor, as soon as may be, and he shall also file with the clerk of the court in which the offender was convicted, an attested copy of the warrant and return, a brief abstract whereof the clerk shall subjoin to the record of his conviction and sentence.

Section 4861. The governor may, in his discretion, make such additional rules and regulations governing applications for pardons as may from time to time seem to him best; but the provisions of this chapter shall not apply to the applications for pardon to be granted within ten days before the time when the convict would otherwise be legally entitled to discharge.

Section 4862. When any convict sentenced to confinement in the state prison, state reformatory, or in any county jail or house of correction, is pardoned upon any conditions to be by such convict observed and performed, and it shall come to the knowledge of the governor that such convict has violated or failed to comply with any of such conditions during the term of his sentence, he may issue his warrant, directed to the sheriff of any county commanding him to arrest such convict and bring him before the governor; and it shall be the duty of such sheriff to execute such warrant without delay.

Section 4863. If, upon inquiry thereof, it shall satisfactorily appear to the governor that such convict has so violated or failed to comply with any of such conditions of his pardon, he may, upon his order and warrant, remand such convict to the prison, jail, or house of correction to which he had been sentenced; and he shall thereupon be confined therein for the unexpired term of his sentence, and the time between such conditional pardon and such subsequent arrest shall be computed as part of such term; but if it shall appear that such convict has not so violated or failed to comply with any of such conditions he shall be discharged. The fees and expenses of any such proceeding when approved by the governor shall be audited by the secretary of state and upon his warrant, paid out of the state treasury.

Section 4864. The provisions of this chapter shall prevail in all applications for pardon by persons sentenced to imprisonment for one year or more to the Milwaukee county house of correction or state reformatory.

73. The following rules for the government of applications for pardon or commutation of sentence are hereby promulgated:

Applications for pardon with accompanying papers should be filed in the executive office at least ten days before final examination of the case can be made.

74. Application for commutation of sentence of any person convicted in any court of this state of any crime punishable under the laws thereof by imprisonment in state prison, shall be made in the same manner as applications for pardon are made, and the requirements of sections 4856 and 4857 of the revised statutes, prescribing the manner of applying for pardons, shall also apply to applications for commutation of sentence.

75. All applications for the release by the executive of any person convicted in any court of this state of any crime or offense punishable under the laws thereof, by commitment to the industrial school for girls shall be made in like manner as applications for pardon in state prison are made.

76. Pardons to restore to rights of citizenship will not be granted until one year after the expiration of the term of sentence, and then only upon a petition endorsed by reputable citizens where the convict has resided since his release, that he has been of good behavior and is worthy.

Prison Officers not to Procure Pardons.

77. Section 4916. All officers and persons employed in and about the prison shall perform such duties in charge and oversight of the prison, the care of the property belonging thereto and the custody, government, discipline and employment of the convicts as shall be required of them by the Warden, in conformity to law and the rules and regulations of the prison, and no such officer or person shall be engaged, directly or indirectly, in procuring the pardon of any convict confined in said prison; and any person violating the provisions of this section shall be subject to immediate removal by the governor.

78. Section 4733. The sentence of any convict to imprisonment in the state prison shall be for a certain term of time, to commence at twelve o'clock, noon, on the day of such sentence, but any time which may elapse after such sentence, while such convict is confined in the county jail or is at large on bail, or while his case is pending in the Supreme Court upon writ of error or otherwise, shall not be computed as any part of the term of such sentence; provided, that when any person is convicted of more than one offense at the same time the court may impose as many sentences of imprisonment as the defendant has been convicted of offenses, each term of imprisonment to commence at the expiration of that first imposed, whether that be shortened by good conduct or not; and provided further that when any convict confined in said prison shall escape therefrom, the time during which he unlawfully remains absent from the prison after such escape shall not be computed as any part of the term for which such prisoner was sentenced to be confined in the prison.

LIBRARY RULES.

TO THE PRISONER—

This catalogue has been provided for your convenience and help in selecting the books you wish to read, and you will be required to keep it clean and free from all defacement or mutilation.

If you desire any benefit or pleasure from books you will appreciate their value to other prisoners as well as yourself, and will refrain from mutilating or defacing them by writing, drawing, cutting or otherwise. These books are charged against you and will be examined on their return to the library and their treatment at your hands ascertained. If unnecessarily soiled or injured by you your library privileges will be stopped. If they are wilfully defaced or mutilated you will suffer a severe punishment and loss of good time.

1. The card slate belongs to the cell and must be left behind if you are changed to another cell.

2. Write your name, register number, and the numbers only of twenty-five or thirty books you prefer, on the card slate, and leave it and the book you wish to return to the library on the seat of your cell chair on the morning on which books are changed on the tier in which you may be located, which is as follows:

Wednesday, Tiers A and B.

Friday, Tiers E and F.

Thursday, Tiers C and D.

Saturday, Tiers G and H.

Books not so placed on the seat of the chair will not be taken from the cell unless they have been issued to you over two weeks.

3. You are not permitted to borrow books from other prisoners. The finding in your cell of any book not properly charged to you in the library will get you into trouble.

4. You can draw but one book at a time and the last one drawn must be returned before another one will be issued to you.

HENRY TOWN,

Warden.
